

Learning Unit: Pet Bereavement

Key Stage I

Unit title: Coping when a pet dies		Teacher:
Subjects: English; PSHE; General studies; Science		Duration of Unit: 1 week
Summary: How to support children when a pet dies
Desired Results
Objectives: To support children through the loss of a pet		Essential Questions: How does a pet's death make us feel? How can we remember our pet? Who can help me if I am sad?
Factual Knowledge: Children will know: That their feelings are valid and it is ok to feel them. Where to get help if they need support.	Embedding Knowledge: Children will: Complete the worksheet and have a discussion around the topic of a pet's death. Encourage the child to draw and write about their pet. Encourage other children to support the grieving child.	Information becoming knowledge: Children will discuss ideas, then complete the worksheet to help process their feelings, and discuss their feelings with family at home.
Extensions: discuss your feelings at home with parents or carers		Differentiation considerations: Describe the strengths and needs within the group and how to meet needs and objectives in different ways.

Learning Plan

Differentiated Objectives:

Most will be able to understand that losing a pet can be very sad

Some will understand that pets can be family members and loss can be very difficult

Some will understand and empathise with feelings of loss

Some will liken the loss to the loss of a human family member such as a grandparent, which can make feelings about the loss worse.

Plan:

The session plan can be used with a whole class, or an individual child suffering the loss of a pet. The worksheet is designed to support a child suffering the loss of a pet. If you feel the child needs further support, talk to the parents or carers about seeking professional help.

National Curriculum links

English: Understanding that we can express our feelings, and developing the vocabulary to do so.

Acknowledging the words available to express feelings through listening, reading and using them in writing and drawing, supporting visually where required.

PSHE: Recognising that there is a difference between life and death, and it is part of the life cycle of pets as well as humans. Knowing who to go to in order to ask for help.

Recognising that others may be feeling differently to us.

Understanding that feelings can be strong.

Understanding how to manage feelings, and practical ways to seek support.

Session Aims and Objectives:

To cope with the loss of a pet.

Teacher's notes: This session can be conducted with a whole class, or can be used one to one to support a child if they have come into school or another setting after a recent pet bereavement. Use this outline in conjunction with the Pet Memories worksheet.

If a child has also suffered another recent bereavement such as a grandparent, this can amplify feelings of loss and make them difficult to cope with. If you feel the child is struggling to cope, talk to their parents or carers about seeking professional help.

Session/Activity Outline:

- Ask the children who has pets at home? Tell them that today we are going to talk about when a pet dies. It can be very sad when a pet dies. Can anyone think of another word for how they might feel if they had a pet who died?
- Then ask the children if anyone had a pet who died? What was the pet's name? How did they feel about the animal? Encourage the child to express their feelings about the pet and their death.
- Tell the child that it is important that they talk about the pet and their loss whenever they like as it helps to think about the big feelings we have when a pet dies.
- Ask the child to draw a picture of their pet who died and write words about them around the picture. The words could be about their pet, or they could be feelings the child had when the pet died. Remind the child that it is ok to feel very sad when someone close to us dies, and that pets are part of our family too.
- Tell the child that it is good to talk about how we feel about the pet's death, but it is also good to remember the lovely times we had with our pet when they were alive. Encourage the child to think about 3 happy times they had with their pet. These could be playtimes, outings, holidays, feeding times, training they did with them, or when they first got the pet. Ask the child to write or draw about these 3 happy memories with their pet.
- Discuss other family members with the child. Remind them that other people may be feeling sad about the pet too, and even other pets could be missing them. Encourage them to talk to other family members about their loss.
- Ask the child if there is something they could keep to remember their pet. This could be an accessory like a collar or name tag, a memory box, a plant or tree they plant in the garden or a plaque they make with the pet's name on. It could also be a photo of their pet.
- Ask the other children how they could help the child suffering the loss to feel better.

Resources/Materials: Basic stationery box, projector or board for class discussion notes, soft toy dog or cat, Pet Memories worksheet

Extension Exercises/Take-Home Activity: Talk to your family at home. Ask your parents or carers whether they miss the pet who died and how they feel. Ask them whether they did anything or kept anything to remember the pet.
